Partnering with the Chartered Institute of Housing

Supporting housing professionals to create a future in which everyone has a place to call home.

Partner with the housing sector's professional body and prepare for the future

The housing landscape is more pressured and challenging than ever and recent events have put the spotlight firmly on the need for housing professionals to be equipped with the skills they need to face their day-to-day work.

The Chartered Institute of Housing has been providing housing professionals with the advice, support and knowledge they need to be the best they can be for more than a century.

Our partnerships give your organisation the opportunity to get unique access to all of those services, a raft of other benefits and discounts and a wealth of experience and expertise. Partnering with CIH also aligns your organisation with a leading influencer in the sector.

Our partnership team will be on-hand to add value and ensure you make the most of our products and services, providing you with the very latest information and updates from CIH and analytics to help you determine a return on your investment.

Training and qualifications

It has never been more important to equip your staff with the skills and knowledge they need to thrive. Our up-to-the-minute training programmes and formal qualifications are designed to ensure housing professionals and organisations are equipped with vital skills to overcome the day-to-day challenges they face.

Being a partner gives you a discount on our day rates and charges. Delivered by expert trainers and tutors, our courses cover a huge range of housing practice and are available in-house, online or a blended approach to fit around your organisation's needs.

Visit www.cih.org/housingacademy for more information.

Apprenticeships*

Bringing through talent and succession planning are key challenges for housing organisations everywhere and the introduction of new housing apprenticeship standards represents a fantastic opportunity to do just that.

We can help you build a bespoke programme of training to equip new staff with the skills they need to excel in their new role. We can also support you to create opportunities for your existing staff to up-skill into new roles, to provide them with progression opportunities and help with succession planning.

Visit www.cih.org/housingapprenticeships for more information.

*Applicable for England based organisations only.

Events

Our events see expert and authoritative speakers tackle the crucial issues facing the UK housing sector. Being a partner gives your staff access to significant discounts across our events.

These range from events looking at how we tackle specific challenges in each nation and region across the UK, to events examining specific areas of policy and practice. They give your staff the chance to explore the issues, join the debate, network and, crucially, to bring valuable knowledge and lessons back to your organisation.

Visit www.cih.org/eventsfinder for more information.

Exhibition and sponsorship

We offer an exciting range of exhibition and sponsorship packages at our events. These provide you with the opportunity to showcase your brand, products and services to key decision-makers.

Exhibiting or sponsoring with us is also a great way to discover and engage with potential new clients and show your support for the housing sector, through associating your brand with the very latest thought leadership.
