

Housing & Adult Social Care – Supporting a Joint Agenda

A joint ADASS/CIH Event

6 February 2018, London

Programme

09:20	Registration & Refreshments
09:50	Chair's welcome          Margaret Wilcox, President, ADASS (London)
10:10	Keynote session: Planning for local needs/ devolution The opening session of the day will discuss how local partners across social care, housing, health and planning and can work together to develop healthy local places. The session will look at how proposals in the Government's social care consultation, proposed funding for supported housing and the Neighbourhood Planning Act can deliver housing and care for older and disabled that communities need.
10:45	Integration to support care at home – Housing as the third essential ingredient with Social Care and Health Brendan Sarsfield, Chief Executive, Peabody This interactive session will discuss what we have learnt from integrated models, use of the better care fund and joint commissioning approaches. Key speakers will share their thoughts on what will happen next and how providers can expand the integration across housing as well as health and care.
11:30	Refreshment break
11:45	Masterclass: Transforming care – Look Ahead          Chris Hampson, Chief Executive, Look Ahead
12:45	Lunch
13:40	Masterclass: Housing and care 21          Dr Vanessa Pritchard-Wilkes, Head of Strategic Engagement and Kris Peach, Director of Extra Care
14:40	Refreshments

15.00	Keynote session: The challenge for social care: delivering quality and efficiencies and how housing partners can help Mayor Kate Allsop, Deputy Chair, Community Wellbeing Board The afternoon keynote session will discuss the challenge for social care and also focus on the role for housing and adaptations in delivery.
15.40	Keynote session: Supported housing funding and the future The closing session of the conference will look at what is next for supported housing. It will provide an opportunity to discuss what the impacts of the government's funding framework will be, and how it will affect long term services. It will also explore what the funding for short term services will mean and how this can encourage more partnership work to support people with a wide range of needs, and prevent problems escalating/ support independence and wellbeing. It will provide the opportunity for discussion between panel and audience.
16:10	Chair's closing remarks
16:30	Close of event

**Programme and speaker's subject to minor changes*