Supported housing: actionable solutions for challenges & funding cuts

13 December 2012, Cambridge

9.30 Registration and Refreshments

10.00 Chairs Welcome and Introduction to the Day
Domini Gunn-Peim, Director of Health & Wellbeing, CIH
This overview will set the context for the day. It will set the scene by summarising the role that housing can play in helping to improve people’s quality of life and life chances; assess the progress made to date; celebrate the successes achieved; identify some stubborn barriers and suggest solutions to achieve successful outcomes.

10.45 Caring for our future – reforming care and support
Simon Medcalf, Bill Manager, Department for Health - invited
This session will look at the Caring for Our Future report and the steering of the care and support bill through parliament. It will explore the white paper looking at what levers are available to help local housing providers.

11.20 Questions & Answer Session
Chance to ask questions and discussions with the morning speakers and share your views and experiences.

11.30 Refreshments

11.45 Commissioning & Procurement – combining the process
Mick Sanders, Head of Integrated Health & Care Commissioning, Norfolk County Council – invited
Keith Beirne, Group Director of Housing Care and Support, One Housing Group - invited
Hear from a commissioner’s point of view what the changes mean for them and what providers need to do to communicate effectively with commissioners. Hear from a housing provider what opportunities the changes provide for them.

12.10 Practical strategies – sustaining services
Sarah Davis, Senior Policy & Practice Officer, CIH
Gain advice on how care & support services can be sustained in the challenging economic environment and budget cuts.

12.30 Maintaining quality & achieving improved VFM – quality service tool pilots
Lorraine Reagan, Assistant Director Health & Wellbeing, CIH Consultancy
Hear the outcome of the quality service tool pilots and how quality can be demonstrated in housing and other services.

12.50 Question & answer session
Chance to put your burning questions to our second set of speakers

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Think local, act personal – personalisation & community based solutions
Neil Revely, Director of Health, Housing and Adult Services Sunderland City Council - invited
This session will offer a social care perspective and will explore what housing can do to capture health’s attention.

15.00 Refreshments

15.15 Interactive Group Sessions
This is your chance to work in smaller groups to discuss issues, share your experiences and raise any further questions with the speakers. We would also like to reach some consensus on the key issues to be taken forward with DCLG and DH.

16.15 Final Analysis and Lessons Learnt

16.30 Chairs closing remarks
