Chartered
Institute of Housing

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS: CIH CHARTERED MEMBER (CIHCM)

Chartered membership is a hallmark of your success in housing – it is the recognition that you are a fully qualified, competent and committed housing professional. As a chartered member, you're entitled to the wide variety of benefits that all CIH members receive, designed to keep you up-to-date with the latest developments in the sector. Alongside all of the regular benefits, our chartered members tell us they're better housing professionals. They use the accreditation as proof of their professionalism, integrity and commitment to ethical behaviour, all for just £298 per year.

Professional recognition

- Recognition that you're a fully qualified, competent and committed housing professional, and the opportunity to use the designatory letters CIHCM and the CIH chartered member logo to demonstrate that commitment
- Professional guidance on ethical decision making, and a code of conduct and code of ethics, to help you recognise and conflicts in your day-to-day work

Access to news, information and advice

- Your own weekly print copy of "Inside Housing" magazine and online access available 24/7 – worth approximately £195
- Fortnightly 'Housing Matters' housing newsletter delivered directly to your email. Contained in the newsletter will be information to help you get the most from your membership
- A range of free publications providing the latest policy insight and good practice advice, such as: 'What you need to know about Brexit and how it might affect migration'; 'Sector showcase: Regeneration' and 'How to support anti-poverty initiatives'
- Monthly 'Focus on influencing' briefings, showcasing the work CIH has done to shape the policy agenda
- Member alerts delivering breaking news as it happens directly to your inbox – on topics such as the EU referendum and the Housing and Planning Act

Access to learning & CPD

- Online access to the knowledge hub; this is an online resource which provides practical information, in-depth case studies and an online network to connect you to other housing professionals working on the same issues
- An online CPD account, enabling you to track your own continuing professional development
- CiZone, an interactive online career planning tool which will help you understand what motivates you and set goals for the future
- Fortnightly webinars covering a range of topics from leadership and professional skills to housing management topics – each worth £20+VAT
- The CIH CPD portal, hosting bitesize online CPD modules – members receive free access to housing modules (each worth £75) and a £15% discount on professional skills modules
- Up to three free training courses in your region

A community of professionals in your area

- A regional board in your area delivering a host of local events, often free to members
- The opportunity to become chair of a regional board, or run for CIH President
