

Public support for social housing

65%

of people agree that the negative view of the people that live in social housing is unfair

63% support more social housing being built in their area

78%

agree that social housing should be available to people who cannot afford the cost of renting privately, as well as to the most vulnerable

80%

of people agree social housing is important because it helps people on lower incomes get housing which they couldn't afford in the private rented sector

68%

agree that social housing plays an important role in tackling poverty in Britain

34%

say that the way social housing is allocated to people is generally unfair

