

Chartered Institute of Housing
Cymru

The housing puzzle Do the pieces fit?

Thursday October 4, Cardiff

the BIG question

09:30	Delegate registration and refreshments
10:00	Welcome Matt Dicks, Director, CIH Cymru
10:15	Ministerial Address Rebecca Evans AM, Minister for Housing and Regeneration, Welsh Government
10:45	Valuing our greatest asset – people As an experienced practitioner of Asset Based Community Development within Local Government, Chris will share how the approach works in practice and the raft of positive improvements it can bring across services. Chris Chinnock, Head of Business Development, Nurture Development, ABCD Institute – Invited
11:30	Refreshment break and exhibition viewing
12:00	Back to the future Our world is changing rapidly – the way we serve communities to provide jobs, infrastructure, and quality of life hinges on our ability to make the most of the opportunities. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Sophie Howe, Future Generations Commissioner for Wales</li> <li>• Joe Earle, Independent Researcher, Foundational Economy</li> <li>• Nick French, Chief Executive, Innovate Trust</li> </ul>
12:55	Launch of New Housing Professional 2019 Katie Hill, Block and Estates Manager, Seraph Property Management (winner of the New Housing Professional 2018)
13:00	The Housing Review – a progress update Hear from Chair of Welsh Government's affordable housing review Lynn Pamment as she reflects on progress made in addressing the challenges posed at the start of the review. Lynn Pamment, Chair, Welsh Government's Affordable Housing Review
13:30	Lunch and exhibition viewing
14:15	Leading change across sectors Winner of The Times Non-Exec Director of the year 2017, hear from Hattie as she reflects on a career spanning homelessness services, housing associations, health boards and seal conservation! Hattie Llewellyn-Davies, Chair, Colne Housing Association
15:00	Refreshment break and exhibition viewing
15:30	Making sense of complexity Prof. David Snowden, Chief Scientific Officer, Cognitive Edge, Director Cynefin Centre University of Wales.
16:15	Close

