Regeneration and renewal: policy and strategic

Course outline
This course will cover the policy and strategic framework governing housing regeneration and renewal.

Learning outcomes
In detail this course will explore the strengths and limitations of different approaches to regeneration and renewal, whilst providing learners with knowledge of the wider economic, social and spatial.

Topics covered
- Casestudies
- Policy and strategic framework
- Contribution of housing organisations to framework
- Key influencing factors
- Role of housing organisations in the regeneration and renewal process

Who should attend
Regeneration and inclusion officers, those serving their local neighbourhoods by providing housing management services or anyone that already has a level 2 qualifications and/or experience of working in housing.