LEVEL 2 CERTIFICATE IN HOUSING PRACTICE

CIH is the independent voice for housing and the home of professional standards. Our qualifications are informed by our engagement at all levels of the industry and the expert knowledge of our policy and practice teams.

A housing professional who gains an accredited qualification from CIH will be equipped with the key skills and expert knowledge they need to contribute to performance improvement in their organisation in a fast-changing environment.

What is the Level 2 Certificate in Housing Practice?

The Level 2 Certificate in Housing Practice provides a general introduction to the housing sector. It has four units:

- Housing provision and housing organisations
- Customer service for housing
- Assets, repairs and maintenance
- Professional development in housing

What does the qualification cost and how long does it take?

Cost: For the latest qualification fees visit www.cih.org/qualifications

Duration: Approximately 16 weeks, with an average of 6-8 hours study a week.

How will this qualification benefit me and my organisation?

Gaining a qualification is a great way to develop your career prospects. Qualifications at this level will give you a basic understanding of housing and introduce you to some of the skills and knowledge necessary to participate in housing related activities.

What can I expect as a CIH online learner?

CIH supports you as an online learner in a range of ways.

When you begin your studies, during your online induction, you will be able to familiarise yourself with the qualification and how it is delivered, structured and assessed. You will find out where to get help, and have a chance to try out the online learning processes before you start your main study topics. There are also regular virtual induction sessions available to learners.

For each unit, you will be provided with a full set of online learning materials to work through. You will submit an assignment at the end of each unit of study (approximately every four weeks).

Each unit contains activities to help support your learning and forums in which you can stay in contact with your fellow learners and share your thoughts on the study topics and assignment task.

You will be assigned a tutor who will assess and provide feedback on your work, and will be available to support and advise you on any queries about your assignment and study topics.

You will be supported by the CIH Housing Academy team throughout your qualification, who will offer guidance when personal or work-related problems arise which may affect your studies.

Other benefits of learning with CIH

- We provide complimentary membership during the period of study for your qualification. This entitles you to a range of benefits designed to keep you up to date with the latest developments in the sector to support you in your studies. It also allows you to use the designatory letters CIHM after your name.
- The flexibility of learning online – fit your study alongside your other commitments.
- No examinations – assessment and feedback is through assignments, spread over four submissions.
