AS THE VOICE OF PROFESSIONALISM IN HOUSING, CIH HAS A LOT TO OFFER ORGANISATIONS ACROSS THE SECTOR TO HELP THEM MEET THE CHALLENGES OF THE FUTURE.

The first thing about partnering with us is that it's personal. Our dedicated partnership manager gets to know your business, your needs, your objectives. Then we develop a tailored package to achieve what you want. Not just off the shelf - if you need something new, we'll work that out with you.

We look at your learning and development plans; after all, your people are your greatest asset. We have a wide range of training and qualifications, as well as events which offer more learning opportunities. Our partnership packages can also include discounted CIH memberships, giving your people access to the full range of CIH learning, policy and practice resources and keeping them up to date with all the latest news.

We also discuss with you how you want to position your brand as a CIH partner. Do you see your organisation as a champion of professionalism? Or maybe you consider yourselves thought leaders in a particular area of policy and practice. Whatever your vision, having CIH at your side will demonstrate your commitment to professionalism and provide an opportunity to shape the future of the housing sector and provide a better service for the communities we all serve.

Talk to our partnerships manager Gemma Meeks on 07990 887894 to discuss what we can do together.
