

Wales board member vacancies

Description

CIH is currently recruiting to fill vacancies on its CIH Cymru advisory board. As a board member, your role will involve:

- Contributing fully to the business of the CIH Cymru board
- Overseeing the functions of the CIH in Wales through high standards of scrutiny and challenge
- Contributing to the development of the CIH's functions in Wales in line with its charter and byelaws, the corporate plan and charitable objectives
- Ensuring the development and effective implementation of the CIH corporate plan in Wales
- Exercising exemplary judgement in the best interests of CIH to provide guidance to the organisation
- To prepare in advance, regularly attend and participate fully in board meetings and other CIH business activities in Wales as appropriate
- To contribute as appropriate to working groups established by the board
- To accept accountability for the decisions made by the board
- To develop effective working relationships with other board members, CIH staff and its members
- Upholding standards and discipline within the board, and ensure compliance with the code of governance
- Willingness to contribute to the effectiveness of the board as a member of the team.

We are keen to hear from CIH members who are passionate about housing and have experience in one or more of the following areas:

- Local Government
- Private Rented Sector
- Private housing / developers
- Public affairs / marketing / event management
- FE/HE education development whether through a voluntary or work-based position
- Academic/research
- Media/comms

For more information on the role of CIH Cymru board members please refer to the recruitment pack.

How to apply

To apply you should submit:

- A covering letter setting out why the post is of interest to you and how you meet the role description;
- A CV outlining the skills/experience they possess in the aforementioned areas; and to matthew.dicks@cih.org.

The closing date for submissions is Friday, 19 December 2025

For an informal discussion on the role of board members or the work of CIH please contact Jonathan Morris, Chair, on 07816 796443 or Matt Dicks, National Director Wales, 07827 805131.